

THE DRAGON

BY L'EPEE 1839

Inspiration

The Dragon is a commemorative table clock celebrating the Lunar Year of the Dragon. The Dragon plays a significant role in the Chinese Culture. It is a symbol of power, strength, and prosperity.

L'Epée 1839
signature vertical movement

Escapement and balance wheel

Curved skeleton hands

Finish: Polishing, Satin brushing & Engraving

L'EPÉE
1839

2 sculpted dancing dragons
as movement plates - act as the guardians of the movement

THE DRAGON

By L'Epée 1839

Limited Edition

88 pieces per version

Movement

8-day - L'Epée 1839 In-House
18,000 bph / 2.5Hz

Dimensions and Weight

160 H x 118 L x 100 W mm
1,3kg

Red - 76.6011/600

Mechanism - palladium-treated brass
Main plates - red lacquered stainless steel Pedestal - stainless steel

Gold - 76.6011/000

Mechanism - gold-treated brass
Main plates & pedestal - Gold-treated stainless steel

Palladium - 76.6011/100

Mechanism - palladium plated brass.
Main plates & pedestal - stainless steel